

OSHA 10 Hour Construction Outreach Training

- Price of Course?
 - 139
- How long is the course?
 - 10 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - This course is designed for construction workers as an ideal orientation to those who are new to the industry and as a reminder those who have been working in the industry to the hazards associated with their work
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course has been “accepted” by OSHA
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - In some areas (New York, CT, Missouri) the OSHA 10 Hour Construction course is mandatory for anyone is working on a public works. Other companies require their employees to have their 10 hour card.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate. You must fill out the survey at the end of the course in order to receive your official DOL (Department of Labor) card, 4-6 weeks later.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- What does the course cover?
 - This course is designed for construction workers, foremen, job supervisors, and anyone involved in the construction industry. OSHA recommends Outreach Training Program courses as an orientation to occupational safety and health for workers covered by OSHA 29 CFR 1926. Workers must receive additional training, when required by OSHA standards, on the specific hazards of the job. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an OSHA construction safety and health 10-hour course completion card from the Department of Labor. Note: This online course has been reviewed and accepted by OSHA for online distribution.
- What is unique about this course?

- It is one of the few OSHA accepted Outreach courses online
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will receive printable certificate with the certificate number on it.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 25
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - 3 – if they fail they will need to take the course in the classroom
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - 6 months

OSHA 10 Hour Construction Outreach Training (Spanish)

- Price of Course?
 - 139
- How long is the course?
 - 10 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - This course is designed for Spanish speaking construction workers as an ideal orientation to those who are new to the industry and as a reminder those who have been working in the industry to the hazards associated with their work.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course has been “accepted” by OSHA
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - In some areas (New York, CT, Missouri) the OSHA 10 Hour Construction course is mandatory for anyone is working on a public works. Other companies require their employees to have their 10 hour card.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate. You must fill out the survey at the end of the course in order to receive your official DOL (Department of Labor) card, 4-6 weeks later.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- What does the course cover?
 - This course is designed for construction workers, foremen, job supervisors, and anyone involved in the construction industry. OSHA recommends Outreach Training Program courses as an orientation to occupational safety and health for workers covered by OSHA 29 CFR 1926. Workers must receive additional training, when required by OSHA standards, on the specific hazards of the job. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an OSHA construction safety and health 10-hour course completion card from the Department of Labor. Note: This online course has been reviewed and accepted by OSHA for online distribution.

- What is unique about this course?
 - It is one of the few OSHA accepted Outreach courses online
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will receive printable certificate with the certificate number on it.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 25
- Is the final test timed?
 - no
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - 3 - if they fail they will need to take the course in the classroom
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - 6 months

OSHA 10 Hour General Industry Outreach Training

- Price of Course?
 - 139
- How long is the course?
 - 10 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - The 10-hour program is intended to provide a variety of training on General Industry safety and health to entry level workers.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course has been “accepted” by OSHA
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - This course is a general hazard awareness course and will help general industry workers recognize common work hazards and teach them how to avoid them and be safe.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate. You must fill out the survey at the end of the course in order to receive your official DOL (Department of Labor) card, 4-6 weeks later.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- What does the course cover?
 - This course is ideal for supervisors with safety and health responsibilities, and for employee safety and health awareness. Students will be introduced to OSHA policies, procedures and standards as well as general industry safety and health principles covered in OSHA Act Part 1910. Special emphasis will be placed on areas most hazardous using OSHA standards as a guide. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an OSHA general industry safety and health 10-hour course completion card from the Department of Labor. Note: This online course has been reviewed and accepted by OSHA for online distribution.

- What is unique about this course?
 - It is one of the few OSHA accepted Outreach courses available online.
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will receive printable certificate with the certificate number.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 25
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - 3 – if they fail they will need to take the course in the classroom
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - 6 months

OSHA 30 Hour Construction Outreach Training

- Price of Course?
 - 295
- How long is the course?
 - 30 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - The course is a comprehensive safety program designed for anyone involved in the construction industry. Specifically devised for safety directors, foremen, and field supervisors, the program provides complete information on OSHA compliance issues.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course has been “accepted” by OSHA
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - Specifically devised for safety directors, foremen, and field supervisors; the program provides complete information on OSHA compliance issues. OSHA recommends Outreach Training Programs as an orientation to occupational safety and health for workers covered by OSHA 29 CFR 1926. Construction workers must receive additional training, when required by OSHA standards, on specific hazards of the job.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate. You must fill out the survey at the end of the course in order to receive your official DOL (Department of Labor) card, 4-6 weeks later.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- What does the course cover?
 - This course covers thirty (30) hours of training, required by the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OSHA), that apply toward the 30-hour Construction Industry course completion card. The course is comprised of 25 sections, each either one or two hours in length, and covers topics pertaining to regulations covered by Standard 29 CFR 1926. The successful completion of this course will help meet the Construction Industry standards established by OSHA.

- What is unique about this course?
 - It is one of the few OSHA accepted Outreach courses available online.
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will receive printable certificate with the certificate number.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 25
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - 3 – if they fail they will need to take the course in the classroom
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - 6 months

OSHA 30 Hour General Industry Outreach Training

- Price of Course?
 - 295
- How long is the course?
 - 30 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - The course is a comprehensive safety program designed for anyone involved in general industry. Specifically devised for safety directors and field supervisors, the program provides complete information on OSHA compliance issues.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course has been “accepted” by OSHA
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - Specifically devised for safety directors, foremen, and field supervisors; the program provides complete information on OSHA compliance issues. OSHA recommends Outreach Training Programs as an orientation to occupational safety and health for workers covered by OSHA 29 CFR 1910. General industry workers must receive additional training, when required by OSHA standards, on specific hazards of the job.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate. You must fill out the survey at the end of the course in order to receive your official DOL (Department of Labor) card, 4-6 weeks later.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- What does the course cover?
 - The OSHA 30 Hour General Industry Outreach Training course is a comprehensive safety program designed for anyone involved in general industry. Specifically devised for safety directors, foremen, and field supervisors; the program provides complete information on OSHA compliance issues. OSHA recommends Outreach Training Programs as an orientation to occupational safety and health for workers covered by OSHA 29 CFR 1910. General industry workers must receive additional training, when required by OSHA standards, on specific hazards of the job. Upon successful completion of the course, participants will receive an OSHA general industry safety and health 30-hour course completion card from the Department of Labor. Note: This online course has been reviewed and accepted by OSHA for online distribution.

- What is unique about this course?
 - It is one of the few OSHA accepted Outreach courses available online.
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will receive printable certificate with the certificate number.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - The reporting department will send a report to OSHA with the survey results and course completion scores.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 25
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - 3 – if they fail they will need to take the course in the classroom
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - 6 months

Hazwoper 40 Hour

- Price of Course?
 - 475
- How long is the course?
 - 32 hour seat time
- Why do I need this course?
 - HAZWOPER 40 Hour is required for employees working on a project consisting of Uncontrolled Hazardous Waste Operation mandated by the Government.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course is not accredited by any regulatory body, although EPA and OSHA both have a hand in deciding what should be taught.
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - This course is specifically designed for workers who are involved in clean-up operations, voluntary clean-up operations, emergency response operations, and storage, disposal, or treatment of hazardous substances or uncontrolled hazardous waste sites.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - Not reported
- What does the course cover?
 - This course is specifically designed for workers who are involved in clean-up operations, voluntary clean-up operations, emergency response operations, and storage, disposal, or treatment of hazardous substances or uncontrolled hazardous waste sites. Topics include protection against hazardous chemicals, elimination of hazardous chemicals, safety of workers and the environment, OSHA regulations. This course covers topics included in 29 CFR 1910.120. The online course meets the standard requirement of 40 hrs of initial training. The three days field experience under a trained, experienced supervisor is the responsibility of the students employer or potential employer.

- What is unique about this course?
 - The course has three parts: the 32 hour online seat time portion, the 8 hour hands-on portion (which must be completed either on-site or through a training center), and the 3 day of actual field experience under a trained, seasoned supervisor. The three days field experience under a trained, experienced supervisor is the responsibility of the student employer or potential employer.
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will only receive printable certificate.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - There is no reporting done for this course.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 20
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - No limit
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - No time limit

Hazwoper 24 Hour

- Price of Course?
 - 250
- How long is the course?
 - 24
- Why do I need this course?
 - HAZWOPER 24 Hour is required for employees visiting an Uncontrolled Hazardous Waste Operation mandated by the Government.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course is not accredited by any regulatory body, although EPA and OSHA both have a hand in deciding what should be taught.
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - This course covers broad issues pertaining to the hazard recognition at work sites. OSHA has developed the HAZWOPER program to protect the workers working at hazardous sites and devised extensive regulations to ensure their safety and health. This course, while identifying different types of hazards, also suggests possible precautions and protective measures to reduce or eliminate hazards at the work place.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - Not reported
- What does the course cover?
 - This course fulfills your requirements for certification under 29 CFR, Part 1910.120 (e), or other applicable state regulations for certification to the 24-hour Occasional Site Worker level.
- What is unique about this course?
 - The course has two parts: the 24 hour online seat time portion the 1 day of actual field experience under a trained, seasoned supervisor. The three days field experience under a trained, experienced supervisor is the responsibility of the student employer or potential employer.

- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will only receive printable certificate.
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - There is no reporting done for this course.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 20
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - No limit
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - No time limit

Hazwoper 8 Hour Refresher

- Price of Course?
 - 95
- How long is the course?
 - 8 hours
- Why do I need this course?
 - This course meets the requirements in OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 for eight hours of annual refresher training for workers at hazardous waste sites.
- Who is the course accredited by?
 - This course is not accredited by any regulatory body, although EPA and OSHA both have a hand in deciding what should be taught.
- What are the benefits of this course?
 - This course is designed for general site workers who remove hazardous waste or who are exposed or potentially exposed to hazardous substances or health hazards. Topics include HAZWOPER regulations, safety and health plans, hazardous chemicals, safety hazards, air monitoring, medical surveillance, site control, decontamination, personal protective equipment, and respiratory equipment.
- What do I get when I pass the course?
 - Once you pass your course, you will get a course completion certificate.
- How is my course completion reported?
 - Not reported
- What does the course cover?
 - This course meets the requirements in OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120 for eight hours of annual refresher training for workers at hazardous waste sites. This course is designed for general site workers who remove hazardous waste or who are exposed or potentially exposed to hazardous substances or health hazards. Topics include HAZWOPER regulations, safety and health plans, hazardous chemicals, safety hazards, air monitoring, medical surveillance, site control, decontamination, personal protective equipment, and respiratory equipment. This course covers the topics in OSHA 29 CFR 1910.120. Prerequisites: Enrollment is open to those who have already completed the 40-hour or 24-hour HAZWOPER training.

- What is unique about this course?
 - We offer three different variations of the course – the 8 Hour Refresher, the 8 Hour Refresher with a Bloodborne Pathogens Module and the 8 Hour Refresher with a Excavations Module.
- End of Course Instructions
 - Student will only receive printable certificate
- Reporting: when will the grades be reported?
 - There is no reporting done for this course.
- Is there a final exam at the end of the course?
 - Yes
- What is the passing grade?
 - 70%
- Does the final have multiple choice questions or true/false?
 - Multiple choice
- How many questions does the final consist of?
 - 20
- Is the final test timed?
 - No
- Can you refer back to the course material while taking the quizzes and the final exam?
 - No, but it will provide remediation once you have completed the exam
- How many times can we attempt to pass the final exam?
 - No limit
- How much time do we have from the date of registration to complete the course?
 - No time limit